Inside Cover Author Series
Women's Financial Group National Bank of Arizona

WA1 Lyn St. James

The Women's Financial Group at National Bank of Arizona launched their 2010 Inside Cover Author Series with retired professional IndyCar driver Lyn St. James. The author of Lyn St. James, A Remarkable Journey spoke passionately about women and sports, the influence of her mother, and the world of racing. She established the Women in the Winner's Circle Foundation, saying "We focus on programs for women who aspire to become race car drivers." Guests enjoyed wine and refreshments and celebrated with cake during the book signing portion of the evening. National Bank of Arizona's Deborah Bateman commented on the Women's Financial Group and their dedication to providing "banking by women for women" with a promise of service, support and security. To attend a future series event contact Roseanne Holewinski at 480 609-2720.
