

SPEED Channel to cover K&N Pro Series East

March 9, 2010 ~ NASCAR has announced the television schedule for the K&N Pro Series East, which will include nineteen-year old female driver, Mackena Bell from Carson City NV.

Bell, who was the only female selected out of 30 potential K&N Pro Series East drivers during NASCAR's Drive for Diversity combine, will make her debut in the K&N Pro Series under the Revolution Racing banner come March 27th.

All K&N Pro Series East races will air on SPEED Channel, THURSDAY evenings at 6:00 ET, 3:00 PST.

SPEED in conjunction with NASCAR Media Group, will air each tape-delayed race as a one-hour show.

SPEED coverage of the K&N Pro Series East division will begin with the season opener at Greenville-Pickens Speedway in South Carolina. The actual race date is Saturday, March 27th. Air date will be Thursday, April 1st.

Air Date/Time/Speedway

Thurs. - 4/1 * 6:00 ET~ 3:00 PST * Greenville Pickens Speedway

Thurs. - 4/15 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * South Boston Speedway

Thurs. - 5/27 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * Iowa Speedway

Thurs. - 6/10 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * Martinsville Speedway

Thurs. - 7/1 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * New Hampshire Motor Speedway

Thurs. 7/8 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * Lime Rock Park

Thurs. 8/5 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * Lee USA Speedway

Thurs. 9/2 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * Gresham Motorsports Park

Thurs. 9/23 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * New Hampshire Motor Speedway

Thurs. 10/7 * 6:00 ET ~ 3:00 PST * Dover International Speedway

For more information, visit www.MackenaBell.com